

Selection Procedure

The Board of the Edmonton Bar Association shall review the nominations with a view to selecting the nominee or nominees who have made a substantial dedication of their time and talents on a pro bono basis to under-privileged persons or to causes supporting under-privileged persons in the Edmonton area who would not likely otherwise have received the benefit of such services.

Individual members of the legal profession or the judiciary are eligible for nomination.

Deadline and Submission

Nominations must be received by December 14, 2020.

Please send this completed Nomination Form by email to:

Bill Hendsbee, Q.C.
hendsbee@camllp.com

The Eileen Nash Memorial Award – Nomination Form

In memory and celebration of the life of The Honourable Madam Justice Eileen Nash, the Board of Directors of the Edmonton Bar Association is very pleased to support the selection process for the Eileen Nash Memorial Award.

We wish to thank all Nominators for their submissions.

Information about the Nominee:

NOMINEE’S NAME:

---

---

EMAIL:

---

ADDRESS:

---

---

PHONE:

---

Information about the Nominator:

NOMINATOR’S NAME:

---

EMAIL:

---

ADDRESS:

---

---

PHONE:

---

Basis for Nomination:

In the space below, please insert or attach particulars as to work or activity of the nominee that you feel qualify that person to be nominated for the Eileen Nash Memorial Award, including ways in which the person has shown dedication on a pro bono basis to under-privileged persons or to causes supporting under-privileged persons in the Edmonton area. If applicable, you may also wish to discuss details such as results achieved, impact, obstacles overcome, etc.

